

I just made my first trip from Florida to Michigan with satellite radio. Not only was I able to have great radio all the way, but it was very comforting to have the traffic and weather information available. I believe I get great value for what I pay, and no one told me I had to do it.